POLITICS

Gov. Mount, of Indiana, will not recognize the gold democrats in appointing the board of tax commissioners. He will appoint a silverite.

Secretary Gage says he will not take up the appointment of internal revenue collectors until the expiration of the terms of the incumbents.

A Western Congressman says of President McKinley that he "can refuse a request so pleasantly that you are glad he did not grant it."

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow is making a record as a headman that promises to eclipse his predecessors. He cuts off heads at the rate of from 50 to 100 a day.

The democratic, silver, republican and populist Senators have formally entered into a compact, extending not only to the reorganization of the Senate committees, but to matters of legislation.

The principal business of the House of Representatives just now consists of voting to adjourn. This throws upon the Senate the entire burden of keeping the Congressional Record supplied with fresh news.

In the course of his Cuban speech Senator Morgan denounced Spain's course toward Americans, and vehemently asserted that if the flag of the United States refused to shelter the American youth, Owen Melton, it was a disgraced rag.

The Eminence Constitutionalist says that the republicans in that town of more than 2,000 inhabitants couldn't find a man competent to discharge the duties of postmaster and were compelled to go 10 miles into the country to find one that they could recommend. It's mighty near as bad in this section, but then the radicals don't think so.

Hunter and his men claim that but for Gov. Worthington's rulings, the gun shoe statesman would have gotten there more than one occasion. Parliamentarians declare that he has been fair and impartial, but the Huntermen heap abuse upon him. While leaving the hall, Representative Lyons said: "I did not know that we had elected a democratic lieutenant governor." Mr. Burnham made a similar remark.

St. Louis, according to her latest directory, boasts a citizen named Ahzenhoesterbaumer. But what is there to brag of in a name requiring only 19 letters? Our sister city, Newport, goes one better in citizen Vonmiderginnerhand, a limit of 20 letters, and his first name is Johannes Heinrich.—Covington Commonwealth.

Official estimate of the world's raw sugar product for this year is as follows: Beet, 4,960,000 tons; cane, 2,655,000 tons. Stock on hand, 1,150,000 tons; total, 8,765,000 tons. Estimated consumption for ensuing year, 7,350,000 tons.

Jessamine county magistrates refused the use of the Nicholasville courthouse to Mrs. Josephine K. Henry, of Versailles, to deliver a lecture on "Social and Religious Liberty," and in consequence the free-thinkers are said to be up in arms.

Frank Allen, of Erlanger, Ind. thought he heard a burglar in his room and fired his pistol in the direction from whence the noise came. To his horror, he found afterward that he had fatally wounded his son.

Thus far this month the custom receipts have averaged nearly a million dollars a day, showing that the importers are not taking the retroactive amendment to the tariff bill very seriously.

Jesse Atkins, who had been in the Hopkinsville Asylum for 45 years, is dead. He was transferred there from the Lexington Asylum, where he had been an inmate for nearly 10 years.

There will be 1,800 incandescent and 500 arc lights to make brilliant the Nashville exposition grounds at night. Over 20 miles of wire will be required to complete the system.

An unknown woman threw her two children in the river at St. Louis and then jumped in herself. The children were rescued alive, but the mother was dead when found.

During the last few years three sons of William Snyder, of Portland, Ind., have suicided, three daughters have become insane and his wife has died from grief.

Theodore Durrant has been sentenced to hang June 11 for the murder of Blanche Lamont in a San Francisco church. This is the second sentence.

North and south-bound trains on the Southern railway collided at Harrisburg, N. C., Sunday morning. Three persons were killed and six injured.

A two-year-old child at St. Mary, O., was relieved of a lizard 3 1/2 inches long. It is believed that the animal darted in the child's mouth while asleep.

Cincinnati will be represented at Annapolis by a colored cadet, Congressman Shattue having appointed R. C. Bondy to that position.

Six inches of snow fell in some portions of Ohio Friday.

THE DOCTORS

Last Saturday was a red letter day for the physicians of Central and South Eastern Kentucky. By previous appointment, the two medical societies, the Central Kentucky and the South Eastern Kentucky, the latter embracing the counties of Rockcastle, Whitley, Laurel, Clay, Madison, Bell, Knox, Estill, Knott and Magoffin; the former those of Garrard, Lincoln, Boyle, Mercer, Casey, Jessamine and Anderson, met in this city at Walcott's Opera House at 10 1/2 A. M., the chair being occupied by President George E. Davis, of Lawrenceburg. Rev. J. T. Sharrard, of the Christian church, opened the session with a beautiful and appropriate prayer. The register showed 70 members in attendance. This is a goodly number to be at large at one and the same time, and if we recollect that it takes 500 people to give a doctor a living—if all pay him—30,000 people in the aggregate must have been represented here by their family Esculapius. If we include Dr. Joseph Price, the eminent abdominal surgeon, of Philadelphia, who was present, whose field of practice covers all the States and Territories of the Union, and whose name is a household one, not only in this county but in Europe, then Stanford should rejoice because the earth and the fullness thereof was hers, if but for a day.

DOWN'S FITZ.

Acknowledged facile princeps with the scalpel and in operative technique, skilled in the arts, learned and brave, the accomplished gentleman, Dr. Price, with his many other honors, has the distinction of having vanquished, in a single round, the renowned pugilist, Robert Fitzsimmons, at St. Louis last Thursday. The fistie champion, for the sake of science, gave the Tri-State Medical Society, then in session, the opportunity to examine him anatomically that the doctors might determine if possible, wherein lay his Herculean strength. They oracularly expressed the opinion that his power resided in his latissimus dorsi and pectoral muscles. Fitz was invited in the afternoon to witness the great surgeon do an abdominal section. He stood within the ropes watching minutely every detail, even to the making of the toilet. When all was finished, the pugilist hurriedly disrobed himself of his glittering, bejeweled belt, that which he had fought so valiantly for and cherished as the apple of his eye, saying as he advanced to the surgeon, "It is yours, Dr. Price; you are now the crowned champion, having with an upper cut and with an under cut fairly and squarely 'ousted' me in the first round."

The topic for the association's discussion was Diphtheria, the subject being divided into two parts. Dr. R. T. Ramsey, representing the South Eastern, read on the Symptoms and Diagnosis, and Dr. Hugh McLean, of the Central Kentucky Society, on the Present Status of the Treatment of Diphtheria and its Results. These papers were of the highest order, were up to date, progressive, and the discussions were well supported. With the proverbial differences seen in scientific debates, the doctors didn't all agree, hence a lively skirmish along the main lines ensued. There was a consensus of opinion, however, that diphtheria now can be explained on rational, scientific grounds, and the antitoxin treatment, comparatively recently instituted, is a specific if given at the inception of the disease.

The members broke way at 12 o'clock, for repair of the inner man, and at 1:30 P. M. gathered at the Joseph Price Hospital to see the operations—both ovariotomies. After the completion of this surgery by the master hand of Price, whose heart lends tenderness to his touch, the members and visiting brethren returned to the assembly hall to carry out the remainder of the program.

A very interesting and instructive paper was read by Dr. Birdie Carpenter, of Hustonville, the only lady belonging to the guild in this section, on the Therapeutic Management of Typhoid Fever. Always in season, because it is ever with us, the subject was discussed by the all-round practitioners of many consecutive years of bedside practice, with a zest very inspiring, each offering some particular thought and experience, valuable and worth preserving.

Owing to the lateness of the hour the Report of the Section on Surgery and Surgical Pathology and the voluntary paper on the Naso-Pharynx in Influenza and the Exanthemata, which were to have been read respectively by Dr. J. G. Carpenter, Stanford, and Dr. J. A. Stucky, of Lexington, were deferred till the meeting which will occur in Harrodsburg on Thursday, the third Thursday in July.

A vote of thanks was unanimously tendered W. P. Walton for the generous use of the Opera House. The session then adjourned with the doctors never in a more generous mood or when their prescriptions were so agreeable.

THE BANQUET.

As all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, Dr. Carpenter thought it wise to provide diversion in the way of a banquet, which was held at the Carpenter House from 9 to 11:30 P. M. Besides a feast of good things deftly prepared by Mrs. Dalton and which was most elegantly served, we also had a flow of soul, for it was decidedly a speechifying occasion. The magnanimous and gracious toast master, Dr. J. S. Cooper, of Livingston, was in his finest fettle and well did he play his part; the only objection urged was that he kept his Damascus blade hanging over the heads of timorous mortals who did not care to speak, but thought it impolite to refuse. Many, however, responded in their happiest vein.

The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. D. W. Vandever. He said he had sometimes invited the doctors to visit him, but this was the first time he had ever been summoned to visit the doctors; that he was proud of the doctors and he fairly expressed the sentiment of the people when he spoke in language of commendation. Gave an encouraging word for the Joseph Price Hospital. He extended cordial greeting to each and all and wound up with "If any words of mine can add to your welcome here on this occasion, they are cheerfully spoken."

The toast "Our Distinguished Guest" was responded to by Col. T. P. Hill in a most polished talk. He said there is no profession in the world to-day, no profession in the Commonwealth that has within itself power to do so much good for the welfare of the people as the medical, for it is self-evident to any thoughtful person that the public health, the health of the body of the individual, the health of the body politic is the first essential for prosperity and for progress. He paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Joseph Price. His speech was interlarded with several amusing but pointed anecdotes, which brought down the house. There were many other toasts—and let the ladies not think they were forgotten. The Nestor of the profession, Dr. J. M. Meyer, would have the blessing come to them, and put us in the deepest thought when he asked: "Where would we all be if it were not for them?"

Space forbids our mentioning the various speeches, but suffice it to say all were heartily enjoyed until the hour of departure.

The Legislature.

Hager's majority for Senator was fully 400.

The bill requiring all executions hereafter to be within the walls of the penitentiary, passed the House 55 to 29.

The House passed Stoll's bill providing for the issuance of $500,000 4 per cent. State bonds to replenish the treasury.

Ethelbert Dudley Scott is out in a hot shell of the republican members of the Legislature who refuse to vote for Hunter. "Uncle Will" Bradley ought to take the young man, lay him across his lap and administer his slipper where it will do the most good.

Catron, of Wayne, is a retrencher and a reformer from away back. He has presented a bill to reduce the salary of the secretary of the railroad commission from $1,200 to $250, meaning to abolish the office and force a member of the commission to do the work.

The State treasurer has issued an announcement suspending all payments until July. The suspension applies to everybody who draws money from the State, except the accounts of the penitentiary, which has an income of its own. He says the suspension will last until July 1.

A dispatch from Frankfort says that as a fitting sequel to the bribery charges, it is authoritatively announced that the Hunter men will retaliate by serving upon a republican member of the General Assembly, a warrant of arrest, the charge being a peculiarly embarrassing, but not unusual one.

Bills have been presented providing for the rebuilding of workshops at the Eddyville penitentiary, destroyed by fire, and appropriating $15,000 for same, and prescribing powers of the commissioner of agriculture and limiting to $5,000 instead of $10,000 the amount appropriated that may be used.

WENT EGGAINT HIM.

He made a bet that he could eat a score of Easter eggs. A score of eggs proved a feat. That knocked him off his pegs. Eggsasperated, he eggsclaimed, "With an eggspressive smirk, 'This Easter lay, which me has lamed, is most eggs-boisting work!'" —Detroit Free Press.

COMFORT.—No smoke, dust or cinders on Queen & Crescent Route limited trains South. Rock ballast. Superb trains with every comfort. Fast time and the short line from Cincinnati.

"Cap" Hatfield, the noted outlaw, was given a year in jail and fined $500 for killing Elliott Rutherford at Williamson, W. Va.

LANCASTER.

Mrs. B. F. Hudson is improving in health after having been dangerously ill.

City Attorney W. I. Williams is the father of a little daughter three days old.

The peaches and all the advanced fruits were likely killed by the last frost and cold weather.

Another Garrard county stock fair seems to be a certainty. Over half the required stock has been taken with but little effort and the balance will be readily subscribed. With the fine stock raised in the county and the known hospitality of the people it is safe to say that it will be a success.

The able, logical and forcible response of the INTERIOR JOURNAL to the Courier-Journal and the glowing tribute paid to the memory of the hero of Fort Donaldson have repeatedly called forth expressions of approval. It is regarded as an article fraught with truth and one that will aid in perpetuating party organization.

Our colored people gave a very creditable entertainment here on Friday night to raise a fund to be used in erecting a school-house. A large crowd attended and a fair sum was realized. Their representation of "The South Before the War" was very entertaining and several comic features were enjoyable.

It looks like Dr. Hunter has more influence over his party than all the machinery of the State administration combined, of which Garrard furnished two of the most important factors. If the scheme to indict him for attempting bribery fails, he may yet win, and, if a democrat can not win he should be elected, because he is the caucus nominee, that is, if the republicans can elect any one.

Lawlessness seems to have manifested itself in a new form. It is reported that a tobacco bed, belonging to a farmer on White Rock about eight miles from here, has been destroyed, a notice being left that the owner could cultivate five acres of tobacco, but not 15, as he intended. Garrard produces over a quarter of a million of pounds of tobacco, and, if the crop is to be reduced one-third our revenue will be reduced in proportion and the farmer can not live. It is hoped that such outlaws will be brought to justice before the planting season opens.

A highly laudable enterprise has been put on foot by John M. Farra. It is the proposition to give an entertainment here, the 13th, Tuesday night, that will be fully worth the admission fee, the proceeds to be given for the relief of the flood-sufferers in the South. It will consist of local musical and other talent, in which the Lancaster Concert Band will fill an important part. All should attend and be paid in a two-fold measure by getting the worth of their money and enjoying the proud satisfaction of having contributed to a most worthy cause. Admission only 15 cents. If the other towns will fall in line a sufficient sum can be raised, and it will not be missed.

The English language, notwithstanding its beauty, power and force, displays a poverty in the use of words of the same orthography, to express different ideas. For instance, when we recline we lie, and, when we prevaricate we lie; when the body is convulsed we have a fit, and, when the tailor does his duty we have a fit; and when we go to law we have a suit, the tailor furnishes us a suit, we follow suit at cards and buy things that suit us. The same is true in the orthoepy of words, spelled differently. It was reported on the streets a few days ago that Mrs. J. A. Royston, an estimable lady, was dyeing and her neighbors expressed considerable anxiety until it was ascertained that the wag, who started the report, meant that she was having some cloth colored.

Mr. XENIA.—A fine Jersey cow belonging to Mr. George A. Eubanks was frightened to death Friday by a pair of mules running after her; a much-loved pet sheep of his wife died that afternoon, possibly from sorrow over the cow's demise, and that night thieves drove up to his crib and hauled off about six barrels of corn, taking some chickens along also. In addition thereto, his family is just pulling through grip, measles and whooping cough, besides various other afflictions and vicissitudes. He is a mighty good sort of a fellow and doubtless strongly believes that "whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth."

SRETAW.

A somewhat mean man inserted the following ad. in a Keokuk paper: "Notice.—My wife, Delia Stacy, having left my bed and board, I will not be responsible for any debts she may contract after this date.—John Stacy." In the next issue of the same paper his wife had her revenge in this way: "Notice.—My husband, John Stacy, having neither bed nor board to provide for me, I am now taking in washing at No.—B. street." —Delia Stacy.

STANFORD, KY., APRIL 13, 1897

W. P. WALTON.

DR. HUNTER seems destined to get almost within sight of the promised land and then not reach it. Friday only one vote stood between him and the long sought prize, but it was not forthcoming either for love or money and again the doctor experienced the truth of the adage: hope deferred maketh the heart sick. Baldwin, who had thereto voted for Boyle and who while swearing that he would never consent to vote for the man whom he had characterized as all sorts of scoundrels, consented to stuff himself and cast his vote for Hunter. This put him within two votes of election and then Senator Stege, who had also been voting for Boyle, said that he would vote for Hunter, if he could get the other vote. He couldn't do it though and after three ballots the joint session dissolved. Saturday the quorum was broken by the union of the gold and silver democrats and the anti-Hunter republicans, so Hunter couldn't muster but 58 votes. He claims, however, that what he will do to them this week will be a plenty and that he will get there, not later than Wednesday. As this is the song he has been singing from the first, it has become to be regarded as much cry and little wool, so nobody pays much attention to it.

The following dispatch was received last evening:
FRANKFORT, April 12.—Sound money men broke the quorum, Hunter receiving only 44 votes. Hunter, Wilson and Franks summoned to appear before the grand jury.

The story comes from Barbourville via Louisville that after John Henry Wilson had made the supreme effort of his life and got Parson Hopkins into the last Congress in time to draw full pay for the term, the ungrateful old scamp, refused to divide with him and left John Henry holding the bag, and regretting both the loss of his time and money. We can't say, however, that we are very sorry for him, much as we like him. He should have devoted his talents to a more commendable and righteous work than to the unseating of a democrat, who was rightfully elected, to give place to a fellow, who was not elected, and who if all that is told is true, is neither qualified for the place he sought, nor worthy of his sacred calling. It is said that in order to catch even Mr. Wilson will move to the 10th district and try to go to Congress from there next time, but the chances are that he will gnaw a file.

THE "Tall Sycamore of the Wabash" is no more. Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana, died at Washington Saturday of rheumatism, with which he had long suffered and which finally reached his heart. He had been in public life since 1858, till the expiration of his Senatorial term last month, when he was succeeded by Charles W. Fairbanks, a republican. On the death of Oliver P. Morton, he was appointed to fill the vacancy and in 1891 he was elected Senator for another term, making 15 years that he served in one or the other branches of Congress. He possessed much force of character and was a splendid campaigner, his matchless eloquence and his magnetic manner making him the idol of his constituency. In his death democracy loses a gallant champion.

The Louisville Times' concert for the benefit of the flood sufferers was both an artistic and pecuniary success. Over $2,000 were realized and have been forwarded to the homeless and starving people along the raging Mississippi. In addition to the concord of sweet sounds, which delighted the audience for more than two hours, Managing Editor R. W. Brown, of the Times, whose fertile brain evolved the scheme and whose energy and enterprise brought it to such a successful issue, made a speech, which was alone worth the price of admission. "Bob," as his intimates call him, is an orator as well as a writer, and never opens his mouth unless he says something, as all who heard him will testify.

The arbitrary action of the State Central Committee in disposing of the old and substituting a new democratic committee for Louisville will further widen the breach between the two factions and makes a coalition of the forces impossible. Mr. Head, who has been chairman, says he will not recognize the action of the committee and there you are. Two tickets and republican victory again in Louisville is what the unfortunate mess means.

The republicans carried Rhode Island as usual last week, but their 14,000 majority there fails to offset the democrat gains in Ohio and Illinois by 100,000 or more. Rhode Island isn't as large as Pulaski county and it is about as densely republican as that stronghold of the enemy.

A LAWYER at Stratford, Ont., is named Adam Swindle. A good many others, who pass for honest men, might be similarly named without violence to truth.

SENSATIONS tread on each other's heels at Frankfort so fast they follow. The latest is the probable indictment of Dr. Hunter, John Henry Wilson and E. T. Franks for conspiracy to bribe legislators to vote for Hunter. Capt. Noel Gaines, of the McCleary Guards, has testified before the grand jury that they visited his house at different times and offered him $15,000 to secure three votes or $5,000 each, and named Gosson, Clark and Johns as the ones to be worked. Wilson went so far as to produce the money as an evidence of good faith. In corroboration of his story, Capt. Gaines produces his brother-in-law, Thomas Tanner, and others, who tell the same story. Hunter denies the statement in toto and says he never saw Gaines to know him nor was he ever in his house. Gaines' wife makes affidavit that he was there on the certain night named and says she could not be mistaken. Mr. Wilson makes a sort of a general denial, but admits that he had talked with Gaines on the subject, to draw him out and get on to his trick. The republicans who would not believe that there was anything crooked about Hunter though one arose from the dead claim that Gov. Bradley is at the bottom of the scheme to destroy their man, while others think it is the deep, dark and devilish design of Blackburn and his minions. In the meantime Representative Thompson, of Louisville, has announced that he will not vote again for Hunter until the charges are disproved.

MR. BALDWIN, one of the six who signed the paper accusing Hunter of nearly every crime in the catalogue, political or otherwise, and swearing that they would never dishonor Kentucky by voting for him to represent her in the Senate, went and voted for the arch fiend almost before the ink was dry on his name. There was great joy over the return of this stray sheep by the Hunter crowd, but his acts taken together brand him as a creature lost to all gentility and a more dishonorable one if possible than the man he assailed and under whose banner he immediately sought shelter.

S. S. CASSITY has taken charge of the Middlesboro Herald, Editor D. E. McDowell having resigned to become telegraph editor of the prospective Louisville Dispatch. Mr. Cassity has had much newspaper experience and is a writer of decided force.

DISTRICT COMMITTEE MEETING.
COUNTY CONVENTIONS CALLED TO NAME CANDIDATES FOR JUDICIAL OFFICES.

At meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of the 13th Judicial District of Kentucky at Danville on the 12th of April, 1897, present James S. Chrisman from Boyle, G. T. Farris from Garrard, J. E. Carson from Lincoln, by Judge R. J. Breckinridge, proxy, and W. C. Bell from Mercer. J. S. Chrisman, chairman, called meeting to order, J. E. Carson elected permanent secretary and treasurer. W. C. Bell elected secretary pro tem.

Judge Breckinridge offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, to wit:
For the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Judge and Commonwealth attorney in the 13th judicial district of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln and Mercer, it is ordered that a convention of delegates, to be chosen by the democratic party of said counties, be held at Danville on Tuesday, the 18th day of May, 1897, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The delegates to said convention shall be selected and appointed at a mass meeting of the democrats of each county assembled at the respective court houses of the said counties on Saturday, the 15th day of May, 1897, at 2 o'clock P. M. at the call of the respective chairmen of the county committees.

The basis of representation shall be the vote cast for the democratic candidate for governor at the November election of 1895, and each county shall be entitled to one delegate for each 200 votes cast for said candidate and for each fraction thereof exceeding 100 votes.

Boyle county having cast 1,266 votes for Hardin, is entitled to 6 delegates. Garrard county having cast 1,114 votes is entitled to 6 delegates. Lincoln county having cast 1,522 votes is entitled to 8 delegates. Mercer county having cast 1,460 votes is entitled to 7 delegates.

All democrats, without respect to individual views or course on the currency or coinage question, and who will support the nominees of the convention, and who are now or will become legal voters at the November election of 1897, are qualified and cordially invited to participate in the primary mass-meetings.

It is further ordered that if by the 12th day of May, 1897, there shall be not more than one candidate announced for either of said offices, then on the following day this committee shall meet at Danville at 12 noon, resolve itself into a convention of the democratic party for said district and declare that candidate as to whom there is no opposition the nominee of the party, for the office to which he aspires, and if there be but one announced candidate on said day for each of said offices there shall be no mass-meetings on the 15th day of May, 1897, as provided for in this call.

All democratic papers in this district and the Lancaster Record are requested to publish these proceedings.

News Briefly Told

Canal Dover, O., has a three-year-old boy who rides a bicycle.
The effort to elect a U. S. Senator in Kentucky has cost up to this time about $75,000.

It is estimated that 50,000 soldiers have died on the field or in the hospitals of Cuba.

The Warren county fiscal court decided to work the jail prisoners on the county roads.

The bones of a mastodon which had teeth that weighed 24 pounds were dug up near Paris.

W. A. Horton, of Compton, was drowned in Breathitt county, while on a stock buying trip.

A white man was forcibly stuffed with food by the natives of the New Hebrides and then killed and eaten.

A Liberal Club has been organized at Nicholasville. Only liberal thinkers will be permitted to join.

Mrs. Thomas Huffmeir, of Crawfordsville, Ind., fatally shot her young son while trying to take a gun from him.

Spain has sunk $128,000,000 in the Cuban war thus far, and Weyler hasn't given her anything but a run for her money.

An explosion of whisky in a freight train near Indianapolis caused the destruction by fire of 14 cars and their contents.

In Scott county, Va., a man was shot dead for refusing to marry a girl whom he had betrayed. The girl's brother was the slayer.

The Owensboro, Falls of Rough and Green River railroad, was sold at auction at Owensboro, to the Illinois Central for $150,000.

Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of the president, vice president and cashier of the defunct Globe Savings Bank of Chicago.

A cyclonic storm in the vicinity of Ozark, Ala., and Valdosta, Ga., wrecked many buildings and caused the loss of at least one life.

Mrs. James Cullen, of Marietta, O., fell dead while rehearsing a dirge she expected to sing at a friend's funeral on the following day.

The body of a young woman from which the head had been severed was found near Mount Vernon, Ill. The head was found near by.

Thomas Hays, of Logansport, Ind., jumped from the third-story of his house when he discovered that it was afire. Every bone in his body was broken.

Tommy Johnson, aged 12, is wanted at Peru, Ind., for setting fire to a neighbor's house because the owner of the property threatened to whip him for taking some bricks from the place.

After Wm. J. Bryan had delivered an address at St. Augustine, Fla., the people rushed to the stand to greet him, when it gave away, hurling hundreds into a struggling mass. Many persons were injured, some fatally, and Mr. Bryan was knocked senseless. Fortunately, however, he was not seriously hurt.

Knoxville suffered the worst fire in its history Thursday. The very heart of the city, including some of the largest wholesale and retail houses in the south, were destroyed. The loss is variously estimated at from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000, with about 60 per cent of insurance. The entire block between Union and Reservoir streets, on Gay street, with the exception of the McGee building, and the longest and handsomest block in the city, is a mass of ruins. Three men perished in the fire, and one man who inhaled flames will die.

Dr. Joseph Price, of Philadelphia, bought of Jesse Walter his fine black saddle for $150.

R. D. Bruce is again agent for the old, reliable Champion Binder. See him before you buy.

Any one desiring a mower or binder will save money by seeing W. H. Murphy, agent for the Walter A. Wood Co.

Ashland Wilkes, sire of John R. Gentry, was sold at Lexington for $7,500. Brook Curry, of that city, bought him.

The Glenn Falls, N. Y., Association wants to put up $5,000 for a special race between John R. Gentry and Star Pointer.

G. A. Swinebroad bought of R. H. Bronaugh 53 stock cattle, mostly steers, at 3.85 and sold them a few days later at 4 to 4 1/2c.

The Queen City Oaks, for three-year-olds, was won at Newport Saturday by Fawnette, Nancy Lee's sister was second and Panchita third.

Denmark J., the fine saddle horse bought at Lexington for President McKinley, is 15 1/2 hands high and weighs 1,225 pounds. He cost $725.

I will stand George Dictator at $10 to insure a living colt. Will also make the season with two good jacks at $8 to insure. M. S. Baughman, Stanford.

Mr. H. F. Hillenmeyer, the well-known nurseryman, informs the Lexington Leader that the frost Friday night did not damage early vegetables or fruits at all.

J. L. Beck sold to William Moreland 60 ewes July 1 delivery at $2.50. Mr. Beck sold his lambs to S. M. Owens for June delivery at 5c for 60-pounders and upwards.

Thomas A. Coulter will stand Pence again this season. There are few better breeders or individuals and he should make a big season. See his pedigree in our next issue.

Woods & Lynn bought of various parties 140 175-pound hogs at 34c. They bought of William Logan 45 sheep with lambs thrown in at $2.25; of James H. Goode, 10 sheep with lambs thrown in for $25.

J. C. Hays bought in Pulaski and Rockcastle 29 calves and sold 15 of them to A. J. Thompson and W. H. Brown at $12.50. He also engaged 50 shoats to same parties to be delivered between May 1 and 15 at 34c.

At the sale of Col. R. B. Rice's effects near Hedgeville Saturday, corn sold at $1.15; heifers $1.10; two-year-old steers $1.75; milk cows $1.80 to $2.40; horses and mules sold low. A tract of 60 acres was bought by Hunter House for $850.

R. C. Warren, master commissioner, sold the home place of Mr. M. N. DePauw yesterday, containing 137 acres at auction to the plaintiff, Mrs. Jennie C. Wolfe, for $3,818.60. It was appraised at $47.50 per acre and the price received is only a little over $27.

A large crowd attended court yesterday but not a great amount of business was transacted. About 100 cattle were on the market and most of them were sold. Butcher stuff brought 2 to 2 1/2c, yearling and two-year-old steers 3 to 3 1/2c, heifers 3 to 3 1/2c. Horses and mules were dull.

The horse show at Hustonville Saturday afternoon was the poorest for years. Only four animals were exhibited but a good many people were in town to see them. The horses shown were J. Steele Carpenter's Wallace Denmark and Lexel, William Dodd's Galton and W. H. Murphy's three-year-old by King Chester.

THE horse show yesterday was the slimmest we have ever seen here. A good many who had good horses failed to bring them to town and the large crowd was disappointed. Those shown were J. K. Baughman's Naboth; T. A. Coulter's Pence; I. S. Tevis' Furius; E. P. Wood's Eagle Bird and George Craig's Tom Yeager. S. H. Baughman and W. S. Garner each showed a jack.

Queen means Superior to all. We claim for the Queen Washer:

First, That it will out last any other.

Second, That it will wash from the finest to the coarsest clean and will not tear clothes.

Third, That it will wash as clean as you can with a washboard.

Fourth, That you can do the work in one-half to three fourths less time.

Fifth, That as was remarked by one using the Queen, when asked if it would save time and labor: "It about cuts off the washing part."

Price, $3.50. Call and see it.

PERSONALS.

MISS MOLLE BURDETT is back from a visit to Parksville.

DR. A. S. PRICE spent Sunday with his mother in Garrard.

HON. J. N. SAUNDERS has returned from a visit to his father in Iowa.

MISS BETTIE EVANS, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. E. P. Woods.

MISS BETTIE PAXTON went over to Lexington yesterday to visit relatives.

MRS. JOSEPH COFFEY, of Livingston, came down Saturday to see her friends here.

MR. J. R. HALES has moved his family to I. M. Bruce's house on East Main street.

MARK HARDIN, of London, spent several days with Mark Hardin, of this place.

PRESIDENT J. M. BROOKS, of the Middlesboro Town Co., was here a short while Friday.

MRS. BRIGHT FERRELL, of Waynesburg, spent several days with Mrs. Vincent Geer.

DR. J. S. STAPP and Miss Rena Stapp were here Saturday, the latter for the purpose of shopping.

MRS. IDA STEELE, of Junction City, spent several days with her brother, Mr. L. M. Westerfield.

MRS. LIZZIE MCALISTER has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Mt. Sterling and Lexington.

MR. JAMES MARET, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, was here Sunday, looking like the world is using him well.

MISS JENNIE BURNSIDE, of "Coon Hollow," Garrard county, is the guest of Mrs. A. G. Huffman at the Myers house.

MR. A. A. WARREN went to Louisville yesterday to represent Hope Lodge No. 19 at the Knights of Honor meeting.

MESSRS. M. J. FARRIS and R. G. EVANS, who seem determined to own the whole of Boyle county, were here yesterday.

FARRIS SANDIDGE was here from the West yesterday telling about a pretty little girl that arrived at his house last week.

G. W. CABELL, blacksmith for William Daugherty, suffered a stroke of paralysis yesterday and was in very bad shape when we went to press.

EVERYBODY was glad to see Dr. Hawkins Brown here Saturday. He had been ill for a long time, and for a while was thought to be fatally so.

MR. T. J. CRESS, of Rockcastle, who came down to see his wife at the Joseph Price Infirmary, worked the town in the interest of the Mt. Vernon Signal.

HON. F. F. BOBBITT spoke to a large audience yesterday and as usual took a crack at creation, but failed to announce himself for any particular office.

MRS. HALEY and Miss Mabel Roberts, of Missouri, who have been visiting Mrs. Thomas Dalton and Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, left yesterday for Louisville.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY and J. S. OWSELEY attended the committee meeting at Danville yesterday which fixed the time to nominate candidates for the offices they seek.

ZAN DUDDERAR, of Louisville, and Fox Daddarar, of Corbin, are at home to see Will Duddarar, who continues very ill. The latter has a badly sprained ankle which he got while jumping from his engine.

MRS. ROBERT MCALISTER, who has been in ill health for some time, leaves today for Lexington, where she will receive the attention of a specialist.—Nicholasville Journal.

HON. BRECK JONES, vice president of the Mississippi Valley Trust Co., with a delegation of St. Louis financiers, was given a big banquet in Philadelphia the other night.

MR. H. N. WARE, of Washington county, was here yesterday. He is doing well there, but seems to live in hopes that he will yet get back to Lincoln to spend the rest of his days.

MESSRS. JOHN S. HUGHES and John P. Jones were in Knoxville during the big conflagration and came very near stopping at Hotel Knox, in which the fire originated. The house Mr. Jones travels for was among those burned.

I HAVE a splendid assortment of fashionable millinery and other goods which are offered at the closest margin for cash. Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

THE Somerset Reporter says that Col. Silas St. John, the noted expressman, has leased the Cumberland Falls Hotel and will open it for the season in a few days.

DOGS.—Mr. George C. Givens' pet dog went mad Sunday and had to be killed. Frank Holzeclaw, also had a pet dog, but a wagon wheel ran over it the same day and killed it.

DIDN'T PROSECUTE.—Marshal John Newland weakened as the trial drew near and he finally declined to prosecute Perry McLean, the youth who whipped the officer's son.

WON.—Will Huffman and Smith Yowell walked from Hustonville to Knob Lick, a distance of 10 miles on a wager. Of course their mission to the latter place was to see their sweethearts.

ACQUITTED.—As we predicted in our last issue that he would be, Samuel Landy was acquitted of the charge of selling whisky at Danville. He will be very careful in the future who he drinks with.

WILL JAMES, son of Henry James, the colored blacksmith, died Friday of consumption. He was 22 years old and a member of the Baptist church. Mr. Joe Severance, for whom he worked a long time, says he was the most thoroughly honest and reliable darkey he ever knew.

IF Sam Jones had anybody to hear his lecture, "Get There and Stay There," in Stanford last Monday, it was not due to the alleged picture of him that appeared in the INTERIOR JOURNAL of a few days before, but in spite of it.—Owenton Herald. That wasn't a good picture of Samuel, we admit, for he is quite a handsome man, but it drew the people like a porous plaster to see if a thing that looked like that could talk, much less amuse and edify.

WASHED ALL THEIR SINS AWAY.—As a result of Revs. Bolling and Miller's meeting at the colored Baptist church 25 men, women and children had their sins washed away in the pool near the water works Sunday afternoon. Rev. Bolling did the baptizing and before putting each of them under the water he would say: "In accord with your faith and in obedience to my Lord's command I baptize you in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost and Amen." Some of the recent converts became very happy and not all of them were able to contain themselves. Nearly 1,000 people witnessed the baptismal ceremonies.

THOSE people who listened to the siren song of agents for brokerage firms in New York, which proposed to invest money for them and double it in a year, now wish they hadn't been such suckers. For awhile they bated the suckers with big returns and they in turn doubled their investment. E. S. Dean & Co., New York, are the first to go up and they have done so without any available assets, leaving thousands of people, who can ill afford to do so, to hold the bag. Money doesn't grow on trees in this country and when a fellow comes around offering almost to give you two dollars for one make him right about face and then plant the toe of your boot where it will do him the greatest hurt.

CUTS BOTH WAYS.—Secretary J. J. McRoberts, of the local board of underwriters, has received a letter from the State Board telling him to call a meeting of all the local insurance agents and notify them that beginning May 1, when the ordinance requiring insurance companies to pay $20 a year license, will go into effect, that an additional charge of 10 per cent must be added to the present insurance rates on all property located within the city limits. The companies are forced, the board says, to this increase by the un-just tax levied upon them and that the rates will continue as long as the license is required. The council had better go slow, the real tax-payers are standing all they can now and this increase of their insurance rates means a loss of many thousand dollars to them.

FRESH home-made candy every day at the Candy Kitchen, 20c a pound. J. A. Stephenson.

T. C. DODDS will give a phonograph entertainment at Willow Grove school-house Saturday night, next.

DEATH.—Aunt Milly Cook, a well-known colored woman, died Sunday morning and will be buried to-day.

MY millinery goods are now open and ready for your examination and purchase. Call at once and do both. Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

A GREAT display of pattern bonnets and children's hats Friday, 16. Everybody invited to come and inspect my stock. Mrs. Kate Duddarar.

NEW CONSTABLE.—Judge W. L. Dawson has appointed M. Speed Peyton, familiarly known as "Cap," constable in this district. A good selection.

PROMPT service and quality of our chemicals explain the increase in our prescription trade. Special attention given to horse and stock formulas. Craig & Hocker.

PINK COTTAGE.—This noted place was sold to Mrs. Josephine Evans by W. P. Walton yesterday for $1,500 cash. It is understood that it is for Mrs. J. E. Farris and children.

PRIMARY.—The democratic committee in Boyle has fixed May 29 for a primary to select county officers, and invites democrats of all factions, who will support the nominee, to take part.

I WILL have my annual spring opening Thursday and Friday, next, 15 and 16, and on Saturday, the 17th, the children are invited to come to my store. Will have a nice display of pattern hats and bonnets. Miss Lizzie Beazley.

MARRIAGES.—Curtis Young and Miss Julia M. Bastin, each 19 years old, will be married at Alex. A. Bastin's Wednesday. William Leach, a widower of 57, and Miss Delila Frazier, 24, were married at Highland yesterday.

THE COMMITTEE WILL SELECT THE CANDIDATES.—The democratic county committee met here yesterday with a full attendance of the members and after considerable discussion, decided to select two men from each voting precinct in the county, making 36 in all, to act in conjunction with the committee, which will meet at Stanford, May 15, to nominate candidates for county offices. The names of the 36, who are to canvass the question and report on the most available candidates for the various offices, will be kept a secret until the day of nomination.

HOCKER.—The Pine Bluff, Ark., Press-Eagle, of the 30th ult., tells of the death of Capt. William K. Hocker, which occurred on the 28th in the 77th year of his age. He was a brother of Mrs. Mary J. Miller and Mrs. Martha Lackey and the grandfather of Mr. S. H. Shanks' children, and was well-known here. His funeral services were conducted by Gov. J. P. Eagle and the burial was with Masonic rites. The paper says that "Capt. Hocker was an eminently just and upright man and was revered and loved by all who knew him intimately. He leaves a faithful, loving wife and four daughters, who did all in their power to comfort his last moments." Capt. Hocker had been a great sufferer for years, but he was always cheerful and when he visited here a year or two ago, he seemed to be happy although he bore the evidence that his death was but the question of a very short time. His last letter to Mrs. Miller said he was ready for the fast approaching end and was not afraid to meet his Maker. A good man has gone to the reward of a well spent life, leaving an example of piety and contentment that is worthy of all emulation.

TO CALIFORNIA.—Capt. Frank Harris, of Lebanon, and for many years a resident here, has arranged an excursion to San Francisco, beginning June 22 and good till Aug. 15 at the heretofore unheard of rate of $54.10 for the round-trip, or $10 less than for one way. If a party of 25 or 30 can be secured from this section, Capt. Harris undertakes to secure a Tourist sleeping car, which can be used exclusively by the party for the entire trip, the cost of which would be $1 per day, each, in addition to cost of transportation. This trip is further desirable on the score of offering the party the privilege of going the Southern route and returning the Northern route, and should the party wish to visit Portland, Oregon, a rate of $6 by steamer and $7.50 by rail additional can be obtained. The captain extends invitation to his friends hereabouts to go along and to those who want to visit the golden coast it is the opportunity of a life time. The greater portion of this great country can be seen and an insight into its varied advantages of climate, resources and industries obtained that could not be had in any other way. Communicate with Capt. Harris at Lebanon if you wish to go and desire further particulars.

THE heavy frost and ice of Saturday morning, followed by those of Sunday and Monday morning, seem to have gotten what was left of the peaches.

THE fiscal court bought the Stanford and Ottenheim pike yesterday for $400 and made it free. There are 7 1/2 miles. This makes the road cost the county $6,400. It had already given $800 per mile to it.

IN the court yesterday the will of John Blain was admitted to probate. It gives his wife, Mrs. Eliza Blain, the entire estate and appoints her executrix. P. W. Green was granted license to sell liquor at McKinney.

YESTERDAY was the liveliest day here in a long time. Fortune tellers, fakirs, machine men, Bobbitt, the Lord's Minstrels and the democratic county committee, all attracted crowds and everybody seemed to enjoy the day.

CHANGE ON THE QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.—Beginning Sunday, April 11th, the schedule of train No. 4 will be slightly changed, arriving at Cincinnati at 6:40 A. M. instead of 7:15. This train under new schedule will leave Somerset at 1:40 A. M., Junction City 2:49 A. M., Lexington 4 and Georgetown 4:20. W. C. Rinearson, G. P. A.

RIGNEY.—Hon. Ferdinand D. Rigney died at his home in Casey county after a long illness, aged 75. He was a major in the Federal army and a gallant soldier. Since the war he has served in both Houses of the General Assembly, his last service being in the Senate from this district. He was a fine old gentleman and a splendid democrat. He leaves a wife and one son, W. O. Rigney, of Lancaster, to which place the remains will be brought for interment to-day.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. H. N. Faulconer held a few nights' meeting at Junction City last week and drew five into the church.

Rev. John C. Molloy, for 20 years pastor of the Fourth street Presbyterian church at Owensboro, has resigned. The Madison county grand jury refused to indict Rev. J. L. McMurray, the young Baptist preacher, of Berea, accused of forgery.

The Q. & C. will sell round trip tickets to Wilmington, N. C., May 7-14 at one fare, on account of the Southern Baptist Association.

During the year ending April 1, 46 new names were added to the Harrodsburg Baptist church roll of membership and but one death occurred in that time.

Rev. G. W. Bolling, the colored divine, says what the white folks call sanctification, the Negroes call heart-felt religion, the whites are now simply following in the footsteps of his race. The Methodist meeting continues with interest unabated. Rev. L. L. Pickett is the principal preacher and he is a good one. There have been a number of converts and several sanctifications since last report.

Rev. F. D. Hale has already had 127 additions at his meeting in Owensboro. The Messenger says that it is the largest ingathering as the result of a meeting with any individual church in Owensboro within the past 15 years.

LOW PRICES MY SPECIALTY.

'Best Goods for the Least Money'

My Motto and the Golden Rule absolutely applied to every Customer.

In Dress Goods I have a few of the fanciest all wool patterns from 25c to 65c per yard. Blue and black Serges, all wool, from 25c to 75c per yard. The latter are special values, one and all.

A great variety of Trimmings, such as Velvets, Silks, Ribbons, Laces, etc. The prices of these goods suit the times.

All qualities, colors and prices of Silesias, Percalines, Cambrics, Rustelins, Canvases, Fiber, Crinoline and other of the latest Linings.

My line of Cotton Goods, such as Bleached and Brown Sheetings, Camlets, Gingham, Calicoes, Percales and White Goods of every description, is very complete at present. I have more Percales on hand than I ever had. Call in and see them. Samples freely given.

My Hamburgs and Laces embrace the latest creations of the oriental artists. Quite a variety in patterns, quality and width in both. Prices run from 2 to 75 cents.

The most fastidious will be pleased with the extensive line of Towels, Crash, Table Linens and Damask shown.

In Hosiery and Shoes, most anything anybody would want. I handle the noted Zeigler Bros. Shoes. For style, comfort, durability and price, they are superior to any other goods made.

Notions, such as Hair Pins, Ladies' White Linen and Fancy Collars, Pins, Needles, Kid Gloves, stamped Linens, Filo Silk, Crepe Paper, Leather Belts, Purses, Shirt Waist Sets, etc., in boundless profusion.

At present I am offering Neglige Shirts worth $1 at 85 cents and others worth 72c at 60 cts. By an honest trick in trade these were bought below their value and are offered the same way.

An extensive stock of soft bosomed, fancy Shirts (the latest thing) I call special attention to. A full line of sizes always on hand.

The most noticeable feature about my CLOTHING is the fit, and the most striking characteristic is the low prices. If I can not fit you out of my stock, I can take your measure. Perfect fit, highest art and lowest prices always guaranteed.

Space will not permit a detailed description of my Wool and Straw hats. But I will say from point of style, quality and price they are strictly up to date.

MT. VERNON.

Born, to the wife of Mr. George McCoy, a daughter, named Ina.

Mr. C. Forrester has been quite ill at the Miller House for the past week.

The Mt. Vernon brass band gave an enjoyable supper at the court-house Friday night.

Jack Adams returned from Frankfort Saturday night. This is the third man from here whom the governor has pardoned recently.

The new residence of Mr. B. J. Bethurum is nearing completion. It is a handsome cottage and will be quite an addition to Richmond street.

The Band of Hope was attended by a large number of children Sunday afternoon. This is a good work which the W. C. T. U. has undertaken.

The Pine Hill Coal Co. is getting everything in readiness for extensive operations this summer. They are refitting the cottages and repairing their side tracks. They will have a saw mill on their land.

The Rockcastle Rock Quarry Co. operated by that substantial firm, W. C. Mullins & Co., now employs about 100 men and are shipping large quantities of ballast. Messrs. Andy Fish and Robert Cox, two most worthy young men here, have positions with them.

Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Scroggs are in Danville attending Presbytery. Mr. Wm Gilmore thinks of locating here. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Poynter have taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Weber. Misses Ora Hansel, Florence Griffin and Lela May Lovell entered Mrs. Nesbitt's school this week. Messrs. W. C. Mullins and Ab Sparks, of Livingston, were up Sunday. Editor Smith came up Saturday to see his best girl. Dr. Pennington has located here with a promising prospect for success. We welcome him and his excellent wife.

MATRIMONIAL.

Thomas Hadley, of Estill county, Tenn., eloped with his step-daughter and hasn't since been heard from.

Miss Louisa McNamee, a Bellefontaine, O., belle, took a teaspoonful of Paris green because her lover jilted her.

Mr. Frank VanWinkle and Miss Nellie Menzies, a popular Falmouth girl, were married Wednesday at the residence of Hon. Leslie T. Applegate, a brother-in-law of the bride, in Falmouth.—Advocate.

A lot of shrewd Michigan girls who want to get married have formed a "bachelors' club." They know perfectly well that the men always fall in love with girls whom they imagine are out of the market.

Rev. J. W. Loving, pastor of the Campbellsville Baptist church, and Miss Lela Harvey, daughter of Rev. W. P. Harvey, of the Western Recorder, will become one on the 28th. Mr. Loving is from Fluvanna county, Va., and is a graduate of the Southern Theological Seminary at Louisville. His first pastorate was with the church at Ghent.

The Press and Printer says that the man who stops taking a newspaper without paying his subscription in full is rarely encountered in the higher walks of life. His life is with creeping things of the earth, and there he is usually found.

VICINITY NEWS.

A Knights of Pythias lodge has been organized at Pittsburg. The London lodge instituted it.

About 20 people of Middlesboro were caught by the E. S. Dean Company swindle for an aggregate of $4,000.

A municipal ticket which embraces white democrats and republicans, and a Negro or two has been nominated at Pineville.

Central University defeated the State College football team Saturday on the latter's grounds 11 to 9 and Centre College beat Georgetown at Danville 16 to 0.

Mrs. Florida Parrish, wife of Lawyer S. D. Parrish, of Richmond, has been granted license to practice law and will, we opine, form another partnership with her husband.

John Hicks, half brother to William Cloyd, of the Middleburg section, died last week at his home in Casey after a protracted illness of typhoid fever. He was 26 years old, unmarried and a splendid young man.

The directors of the Brodhead Fair Association held a meeting and overhauled the books. They found $44 in the treasury over and above all expenses. This is a remarkable showing when it is taken into consideration that it was their first exhibition.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Tom Morrow, Jr., of Somerset, trod on Sam Sanders' foot in the gallery of the House at Frankfort, and he hit Morrow on the face hurting him considerably. Both men were arrested, but Morrow was dismissed. Some of Sanders' friends rescued him from the Statehouse policeman, and the charge of resisting an officer will be brought against him.

The electric current wouldn't work satisfactorily so the electrocution of William Hass, the Ohio boy murderer, was postponed to the 21st. The State had better stick to the rope. It may break sometimes, but it nearly always gets there.

Mrs. Leland Stanford took out a life insurance policy for $1,000,000 for the benefit of the Leland Stanford, Jr., University. The annual premium is $170,000.

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oakton, Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists, Stanford, Ky."

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physician, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists, Stanford, Ky.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Where ever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists, Stanford, Ky.

When Col. Isaac Shelby, of Arcadia, was at Cincinnati last week, the Enquirer said: Col. Shelby is the grand son of Gen. Isaac Shelby, the first governor of Kentucky, for whom counties 11 more than half a dozen States and many towns were named. He lives on the fine estate settled by Gen. Shelby in 1775, called Travelers' Rest. The mansion where many famous men of the nation were entertained, was erected in 1780, is still in possession of the family and is in a fine state of preservation. Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe visited the Shelby family before writing "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and named the good master of the story, George Shelby, in honor of her host. Most of the characters of the famous book lived in the region of Travelers' Rest, which is a few miles from Danville.
